Webinar Invitation: The Public International Law Webinar Series

October – November 2021

The organisers are pleased to invite you to attend a public international law webinar series that will bring together leading public international law practitioners, academics and arbitrators to discuss topical issues of global importance. The webinar series will be launched by keynote addresses by Professor Shotaro Hamamoto and Professor Simon Chesterman who will discuss "Issues of Legitimacy in the International Legal Order".

There are five weekly webinars in this series. The webinars are free of charge, but places are limited, and prior registration is required. Registration for the webinars taking place in October 2021 is now open at the hyperlinks below. Do keep an eye out for subsequent flyers that will contain information and hyperlinks to sign up for each of the individual webinars.
