AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Dr. Gershon Hasin is a qualified US lawyer. He has extensive experience in investor-State arbitration and inter-State dispute resolution, as well as the law of the sea and space law.

Gershon represents sovereign States, as well as individuals and private entities, in various international legal matters before leading world dispute resolution fora. Gershon also advised sovereign States and private entities on various aspects of international law, including maritime boundary delimitation, the law of the sea, and international investment law.

Gershon previously clerked for a prominent international arbitrator, Professor W. Michael Reisman, in multiple UNCITRAL and ICSID investor-State arbitrations and international commercial arbitrations. He has also drafted legal opinions for investor-State disputes, and worked on inter-state litigations before the International Court of Justice. Gershon also taught two seminars on international law at the Yale Law School as a Visiting Lecturer in Law, and is frequently invited to lecture on the regulation of outer space activities, with a particular focus on international investment and commercial arbitration.

Gershon has published and has forthcoming articles in leading law journals including the Yale Journal of International Law, Harvard International Law Journal, University of Pennsylvania Journal of International Law, International Law Studies, and the Georgetown Journal of International Law.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

Highlights of Gershon's contentious practice include:

- Representing the Republic of Azerbaijan in two separate but parallel proceedings against the Republic of Armenia before the International Court of Justice with regard to alleged violations of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination (CERD).
- Representing two Israeli claimants in a claim against Ethiopia brought under the Ethiopia-Israel BIT relating to the State's unlawful expropriation of investments in the construction sector.

- Representing the Republic of Colombia in Question of the Delimitation of the Continental Shelf between Nicaragua and Colombia beyond 200 nautical miles from the Nicaraguan Coast (Nicaragua v. Colombia).
- Representing the Republic of Colombia in Alleged Violations of Sovereign Rights and Maritime Spaces in the Caribbean Sea (Nicaragua v. Colombia).

Highlights of Gershon's experience as an arbitrator's clerk include:

- Assisting Professor W. Michael Reisman in the review of case files, research and analysis of legal and factual questions, and decision drafting in multiple investor-State and international commercial arbitrations.

Highlights of Gershon's advisory practice include:

- Advising a Sovereign State in maritime boundary delimitation negotiations with a neighbouring State.
- Advising a Sovereign State in relation to a prejudicial boundary treaty entered into between two neighbouring States.
- Advising a Sovereign State in respect of a dispute related to a maritime feature and potential related UNCLOS proceedings.
- Drafting legal opinions and response opinions in investor-state arbitrations on multiple topics including attribution, jurisdiction, most-favored-nation treatment, procedural rights, and substantive protections for investors.
- Assisting Dr. Mahnoush H. Arsanjani in the research, drafting and editing of the Institut de Droit International Special Rapporteur's Report on the limits of the dynamic interpretation of the constituent instruments of international organisations.
